Ain't No Grave

Traditional

Capo: 4

Am

There ain't no grave can hold my body down

Dm

Am

There ain't no grave can hold my body down

Dm

Am

There ain't no grave can hold my body down

Well, look way down the river

What do you think I see?

I see a band of angels

And they're coming after me

There ain't no grave can hold my body down

There ain't no grave can hold my body down

Well, look down yonder, Gabriel

Put your feet on the land and sea

But don't you blow your trumpet

Until you hear from me

There ain't no grave can hold my body down

There ain't no grave can hold my body down

Well, meet me, Jesus, meet me

Meet me in the air

And if these wings don't fail me

I'll meet you anywhere

There ain't no grave can hold my body down

There ain't no grave can hold my body down

Well, meet me, mother, meet me

Down by the river road

You know that I will be there

Checking in my load

There ain't no grave can hold my body down

There ain't no grave can hold my body down

G G/F# Em
Twas in the merry month of May
C D
When green buds all were swelling,
C G G/F# Em
Sweet William on his death bed lay
G D G
For the love of Barbara Allen.

He sent his servant to the town
To the place where she was dwelling,
Saying you must come to my master dear
If your name is Barbara Allen.

So slowly, slowly she got up
And slowly she drew near him,
And the only words to him she said
Oh young man I think you're dying.

He turned his face unto the wall
And death was in him welling,
Good-bye, good-bye, to you my friends
And be good to Barbara Allen.

When he was dead and laid in grave
She heard the death bells knelling
And every stroke to her did say
Hard hearted Barbara Allen.

Oh mother, mother dig my grave
And make it long and narrow,
Sweet William died of love for me
And I will die of sorrow.

And father, father dig my grave
And make it long and narrow,
Sweet William, he died yesterday
And I will die tomorrow.

And she was buried in the old churchyard
Sweet William layed beside her,
Out of William's heart, there grew a rose
Out of Barbara Allen's a briar.

They grew and grew in the old churchyard
Till they could grow no higher
At the end they formed, a true lover's knot
The rose around the briar.

Delia was a gambling' girl,

F

But she's laid her money down,

C/G G C/G

She's all I got and gone

Delia, Delia, why didn't you run

When Cooney come chasing after you

With that flaming fourtyfoursix gun

She's all I got and gone

Delia's mamma weep and Delia's daddy moan,

They wouldn't hated it quite so bad

If only Delia had died at home

She's all I got and gone

A rubber tired buggy and a double seated hack,

Carried Delia down to the graveyard

But they didn't bring her back

She's all I got and gone

Delia, oh how could it be

You wanted all of those gambling men

But you never had time for me

She's all I got and gone

 C Am

G C
Fare thee well

I had a man, he was long and tall
And he moved his body like a cannon ball
Oh fare thee well, my honey
Fare thee well

Remember one evening in the pouring rain
And in my heart just an aching pain
Oh fare thee well, my honey
Fare thee well

And muddy rivers run muddy and wild
Can't give my body for my unborn child
Oh fare thee well, my honey
Fare thee well

Just as sure as the birds fly high above
Life ain't worth living without the one you love
Oh fare thee well, my honey
Fare thee well

If I had wings like Noah's dove
I'd fly the river to the one I love
Oh fare thee well, my honey
Fare thee well

Am G Am
"Well met, well met, my own true love,
G Am
Well met, well met," cried he.
C G Em
"I've just returned from the salt, salt sea
Am G Am
All for the love of thee".

I could have married the king's daughter dear
She would have married me
But I have forsaken her crowns of gold
All for the love of thee

If you could have married the king's daughter
dear
I'm sure you are to blame
For I am married to a house carpenter
And find him a nice young man

Oh, will you forsake your house carpenter
And go along with me?
I'll take you to where the grass grows green
To the banks of the salt, salt sea

If I should forsake my house carpenter
And go along with thee
What have you got to maintain me on
And keep me from poverty?

Well I have six ships waiting out on the sea
Seven more upon dry land
One hundred and ten brave sailor men
Will be at your command

So she picked up her own wee babe
And kisses gave him three
"Stay right here with my house carpenter
And keep him good company"

And they had not been gone about two weeks
I'm sure it was not three
When this fair lady began to weep
She wept most bitterly

Oh, why do you weep, my fair young maid
Weep it for your golden store?
Or do you weep for your house carpenter
Who never you shall see no more?

I do not weep for my house carpenter
And not for any golden store
I do weep for my own wee babe
Who never I shall see no more

And they had not been gone about three weeks
I'm sure it was not four
When their gallant ship leaked and sank
Never to rise no more

What hills, what hills are those, my love
That rise so fair and high?
Those are the hills of heaven, my love
But not for you and I

And what hills, what hills are those, my love
Those hills so dark and low?
Those are the hills of hell, my love
Where you and I must go

The only thing a gambler needs
Is a suitcase and a trunk
And the only time that he's satisfied
Is when he's on a drunk

Oh, mother, tell your children
Not to do what I have done
Not to spend your lives in sin and misery
In the house of the Rising Sun

I got one foot on the platform
And the other on the train
I'm going back to New Orleans
To wear that ball and chain

There is a house in New Orleans
They call the Rising Sun
And it's been the ruin of many poor boys
And, me oh Lord I'm one

They've let him lie for a very long time
Till the rains from heaven did fall
And little Sir John sprung up his head
And so amazed them all
They've let him stand till Midsummer's Day
Till he looked both pale and wan
And little Sir John's grown a long, long beard
And so become a man

They've hired men with the scythes so sharp
To cut him off at the knee
They've rolled him and tied him by the way
Serving him most barbarously
They've hired men with the sharp pitchforks
Who pricked him to the heart
And the loader he has served him worse than that
For he's bound him to the cart

They've wheeled him around and around the field
Till they came unto a barn
And there they made a solemn oath
On poor John Barleycorn
They've hired men with the crab-tree sticks
To cut him skin from bone
And the miller he has served him worse than that
For he's ground him between two stones

And little Sir John and the nut-brown bowl
His brandy in the glass
And little Sir John and the nut-brown bowl
Proved the strongest man at last
The huntsman, he can't hunt the fox
Nor loudly blow his horn
And the tinker he can't mend kettle nor pot
Without a little Barleycorn

My fortune to renew,
G D C G
I cursed all foreign money,
G D C
No credit could I gain,
G D C Em
Which filled my heart with longing for
G D G
The lakes of Pontchartrain.

I sat on board of a railway car,
Beneath the morning sun,
And I road the roads till the evening,
And I laid my body down,
All strangers there no friends to me,
Till a dark girl towards me came,
And I fell in love with a Creole girl,
By the lakes of Pontchartrain.

I said, "My pretty Creole girl,
My money here's no good,
If it wasn't for the alligators,
I would sleep out in the woods".
"You're welcome here kind stranger,
Our house is very plain.
But we never turn a stranger out,
From the lakes of Pontchartrain."

She took me to her momma's house,
And treated me right well,
The hair upon her shoulder
In jet black ringlets fell.
To try and paint her beauty,
I'm sure it'd be in vain,
So handsome was my Creole girl,
By the lakes of Pontchartrain.

I asked her would she would marry me,
She said it could never be,
For she had got another man,
How was out at the sea.
She said that she would wait for him
And faithful she'd remain.
Waiting for her sailor man,
By the lakes of Pontchartrain.

So fare you well my Bonny ol girl,
I'll never see you no more,
I wont forget your kindness
In the cottage by the shore.
At every social gathering
A flowing glass I'll raise,
To the health of my Creole girl,
And the lakes of Pontchartrain.

Lily Of The West

Traditional

When I first came to Louisville, my fortune there to find
 F C Em Am
I met a fair young maiden there, her beauty filled my mind
 C C/G# Am
Her rosy cheek and ruby lips, they gave my heart no rest
 F C Em Am
The name she bore was Flora, the lily of the west

I courted lovely Flora, she promised ne'er to go
But soon a tale was told to me that filled my heart with woe
They said she meets another man who holds my love in jest
And yet I trusted Flora, the lily of the west

Way down in yonder shady grove, a man of low degree
He spoke unto my Flora there and kissed her 'neath a tree
The answers that she gave to him like arrows pierced my breast
I was betrayed by Flora, the lily of the west

I stepped up to my rival there, my dagger in my hand
And seized him by his collar and ordered him to stand
All in my desperation I stabbed him in his chest
I killed a man for Flora, the lily of the west

And then I had to stand my trial, I had to make my plea.
They put me in a pris'ner's dock and then commenced on me
Although she swore my life away, deprived me of my rest
Still I love my Flora, the lily of the west

Woke up in the morning 'bout a half past nine,
The hacks and buggies standing in line,
The gents and gamblers standing all round,
Taking little Sadie to her burying ground

Begin to think what a deed I'd done
Grabbed my hat and away I run,
Made a good run, but a little too slow
They overtook me down in Jericho

Standin' in the corner ringin' a bell
Along came the sheriff from Thomasville
Says "Young man, your name is Brown,
Remember the night you shot Sadie down?"

Oh, yes sir, my name is Lee,
I murdered little Sadie in the first degree
First degree, second degree
Got any papers to read 'em to me

They took me downtown, dressed me in black
Put me on a train and sent me back
Sent me back to the county jail
Got nobody to go for my bail

The judge and jury they took the stand
The judge had the paper in his right hand
Forty-one days, forty-one nights,
Forty-one years to wear the ball and stripes

And lie down by my side"

And Matty Groves he lay down

And took a little sleep

When he awoke, Lord Donald was

Standing at his feet

Saying, "How do you like my feather bed

How do you like my sheets

How do you like my lady

Lying in your arms asleep?"

"Oh, well I like your feather bed

And well I like your sheets

But better I like your lady

Lying in my arms asleep"

"Oh, get up, get up", Lord Donald cried

"Get up as quick as you can

It'll never be said in fair England

I slew a naked man"

And Matty struck the very first blow

And hurt Lord Donald sore

Lord Donald struck the very next blow

And Matty struck no more

And then Lord Donald he took his wife

And he put her on his knee

Saying, "Who do you like the best of us

Matty Groves or me?"

And then up spoke his own dear wife

She never spoke so free

"I'd rather kiss dead Matty's lips

Than you or your finery"

And then Lord Donald, he jumped up

And loudly he did bawl

And struck his wife right through the heart

And pinned her against the wall

"A grave, a grave," Lord Donald cried

"To put these lovers in

But bury milady at the top

For she was of noble kin"

Am E Am
How John Lewis did murder poor little Omie Wise.

So, fool-like she met him at Adam's Springs.
No money he brought her nor other fine things.

She climbed up behind him and away they did go.
Off to the river where deep waters flow.

"John Lewis, John Lewis, please tell me no lie.
Do you intend to marry me or leave me behind?"

"Oh Omie, oh Omie, I'll tell you my mind.
My mind is to drown you and leave you behind."

"Have mercy on my baby and spare me my life, I'll go home as a beggar and never be your wife."

He kissed her and hugged her and turned her around,
Then pushed her in deep waters where he knew that she would drown.

Two boys went a-fishin' one fine summer day,
 Whey they saw Omie's body go floating away.

They threw their net around her and drew her to the bank. Her clothes all wet and muddy, they laid her on a plank.

Then sent for John Lewis to come to that place
That he could see her body and they could see his face.

He made no confession but they carried him to jail,
No friends or relations would go on his bail.

Jailer, I can't sleep,
Cause all around my bedside,
Billy Lyon begins to creep,
He's a bad man, oh, cruel Stackerlee

Two o'clock next Tuesday,
On a scaffold high,
People coming from miles all around,
Just to watch old Stackerlee die,
He's a bad man, oh, cruel Stackerlee

And down in New Orleans,
There's a place called Lions Club,
Where every step you take,
You're stepping in Billy Lyon's blood,
He's a bad man, oh, cruel Stackerlee

The Boy Who Wouldn't Hoe Corn

Traditional

Capo: 5

Dm Bb
Tell you a story, it won't take long,
C Dm
'Bout a lazy farmer who wouldn't hoe his corn.
Bb
The reason why I never could tell,
C Dm
That young man was always well.

He planted his corn in the month of June.
By July it was up to his eyes.
Come September, came a big frost.
And all the young man's corn was lost.

His courtship had just begun.
Said: "Young man, have you hoed some corn?"
"Well, I tried and I tried, but I tried in vain.
And I don't believe I raised one grain."

He went down to his neighbour's door.
Where he had often been before.
Sayin': "Little miss, will you marry me?
Little miss what do you say?"

"Why do you come for me to wed?
You can't even make your own corn grain.
"Single I am, single I will remain.
A lazy man, I won't maintain."

So he turned his back and walked away.
Saying: "Little miss, you will rue the day.
You will rue the day that you were born.
For givin' me the devil 'cos I wouldn't hoe corn."

And spend the summer pleasant

On the trail of the buffalo

I found myself in Texas

In the year of '83

A well known famous drover

Came walking up to me

Saying, "How do you do, young fellow

How would you like to go

And spend the summer pleasant

On the trail of the buffalo?"

Being out of work right then

To the drover I did say

"Going out on the buffalo trail

Depends on the pay"

But if you'll pay good wages

Transportation to and fro

I think I might go with you

On the trail of the buffalo

Of course I'll pay good wages

And transportation too

If you agree to work for me

Until the season's through

But if you do get homesick

And try to run away

You will starve to death

And also lose your pay

On the trail, on the trail

On the trail, on the trail

On the trail

With all his flattering talking

He signed up quite a train

Some ten or twelve in number

Some able bodied men

Our trip it was a pleasant one

Through good old Mexico

Until we crossed Pease River

On the trail of the buffalo

There our pleasures ended

The troubles all began

A lightening storm came on us

And made the cattle run

And we got full of stickers

From the cactus that did grow

All along the path

On the trail of the buffalo

When our season ended

The drover would not pay

He said you lost your money boys

You're all in debt to me

But the cowboys they had never heard

Of a thing like bankrupt law

So they left the bastard's bones to bleach

On the trail of the Buffalo

On the trail, on the trail

On the trail, on the trail

On the trail

Will The Circle Be Unbroken

Traditional

I was standing by my window,
On one cold and cloudy day
When I saw that hearse come rolling
For to carry my mother away

Will the circle be unbroken
By and by, lord, by and by
There's a better home a-waiting
In the sky, lord, in the sky

I said to that undertaker
Undertaker please drive slow
For this lady you are carrying
Lord, I hate to see here go

Will the circle be unbroken
By and by, lord, by and by
There's a better home a-waiting
In the sky, lord, in the sky

Oh, I followed close behind her
Tried to hold up and be brave
But I could not hide my sorrow
When they laid her in the grave

Will the circle be unbroken
By and by, lord, by and by
There's a better home a-waiting
In the sky, lord, in the sky

I went back home, my home was lonesome
Missed my mother, she was gone
All of my brothers, sisters crying
What a home so sad and lone

Will the circle be unbroken
By and by, lord, by and by
There's a better home a-waiting
In the sky, lord, in the sky

We sang the songs of childhood
Hymns of faith that made us strong
Ones that mother Maybelle taught us
Hear the angels sing along

Will the circle be unbroken
By and by, lord, by and by
There's a better home a-waiting
In the sky, lord, in the sky

Cowboy Man

Boothill Society

Capo: 2

Bring me my cowboy, tell him I'm waiting
Or else my heart will go insane

Bring me my cowboy, he's such a fine guy
It does me harm no words could tell

And ever since the day he rode off
When our hearts and herds were split in two
And ever since the day he rode off
I am waiting for my cowboy man

Bring me my cowboy, tell him I'm waiting
Or else my heart's expecting rain

Bring me my cowboy, he's such a fine guy
It does me harm no words could tell

And ever since the day he rode off
When our hearts and herds were split in two
And ever since the day he rode off
I am waiting for my cowboy man

With his cattle he keeps trekking
From California to Ohio
And the sand of endless valleys
Keeps sticking to his boots

And ever since the day he rode off
When our hearts and herds were split in two
And ever since the day he rode off
I am waiting for my cowboy man
I am waiting for my cowboy
Waiting for my cowboy
Waiting for my cowboy man

Flying Shoes

You have to wait till she's back again
G6
Bring me my flying shoes
F G C
I have to see her again

Turn by turn I rolled a dice
Turn by turn I lost the price
Cannot not think of her
Cannot wait till she's back again
Bring me my flying shoes
I have to see her again

Letter by letter I wrote to her
Letter by letter my ink got blurred
Can't hold this goddamn pen
Can't hold it till she's back again
Bring me my flying shoes
I have to see her again

Song by song I sang to her
Song by song my voice got furred
Can't sing this song no more
Can't sing it till she's back again
Bring me my flying shoes
I have to see her again
Bring me my flying shoes
I have to see her again

Good Bye Honey

Good bye honey, so long

Oh all the good times that we have had
Oh all the good times they make me sad
Oh all the good times that we have had
Good bye honey, so long

None of your crying can call me back
None of your crying will open up the sack
None of your crying can call me back
Good bye honey, so long

Just one more kiss before you go
Just one more kiss don't want no more
Just one more kiss before you go
Good bye honey, so long

You've got your kiss the road is calling
You've got your kiss I love you darlin'
You've got your kiss the road is calling
Good bye honey, so long

Well, here's your bag and there's the door
Well, here's your bag go go go go
Well, here's your bag and there's the door

Went to the sheriff and shot him dead
Went to the sheriff, put a bullett in his head
He was no friend, he was no friend

And then I took off to the hills
And then I took off to the hills
And there I hid inside a tree
Where no man can ever find me
Ain't got no friend, ain't got no friend

But someone dropped a dime on me
But someone dropped a dime on me
And so they caught me in my tree
And I had to answer for my deed
He was a friend, my only friend

From town to town I go
For ten years I've been rambling
D7 G G7
Now I'm rambling home
And I'm calling out your name
Em Am
And I'm knocking at your door
Dm G F C
For I ain't be that person no more

For no reason I've been travelling
Nowhere I stayed for long
For no reason I've been travelling
Now I'm travelling home
Cause a wayfare needs an ending
And now I'm knocking at your door
For I ain't be that person no more

Many houses I stopped by
Many pretty girls I met
Many houses I stopped by
Disremember what they said
But now those days are over
And I'm knocking at your door
For I ain't be that person no more

I've never been no rich man
Not a penny to my name
I've never been no rich man
What I own I spend
Last dollars on a ticket
And now I'm knocking at your door
For I ain't be that person no more

I know you deserve better
I know a fool I am
I know you deserve better
Let's start all over again
So I hope you will forgive me
While I'm knocking at your door
For I ain't be that person no more
For I ain't be that person no more

I don't think i should pray to god

They say I should save my money
They say I should save my money
But as long as I don't know
What I'm saving for
I don't think I should save my money

They say I should go to school
They say I should go to school
But if all I wanna learn
Is taught on the streets
I don't think i should go to school

Am G
And for my thirty-first birthday
C F
I'll get myself a bell

 C G C
Darling, get yourself a bell

They say I should settle down
They say I should settle down
But if all what I need
Is a blanket on the floor
I don't think I should settle down

They say I should hail the king
They say I should hail the king
But if he is nothing
But a stupid old jerk
I don't think I should hail the king

And for my thirty-first birthday
I'll get myself a bell
A bell that rings out freedom
Freedom to relax and chill
Where noone has to hide
And noone ever has to burn
Yes for my thirtyfirst birthday
Darling, get yourself a bell

Was the day I found the blues

I met a girl she was so pretty
I took her with me to the city
Broke my heart and let me loose
On the day I found the blues

I met a girl she was so funky
I took her with me to the country
Yoked my heart and let me loose
On the day I found the blues

And the day she let me loose
Was the day I found the blues
And the day she let me loose
Was the day I found the blues

F C G G7
All the angels cried when she left

I met a girl from the East
She was the daughter of a priest
Sold my soul and let me loose
On the day I found the blues

And the day she let me loose
Was the day I found the blues
And the day she let me loose
Was the day I found the blues

I met a girl in Oklahoma
She was the daughter of a farmer
Plowed my heart and let me loose
On the day I found the blues

I met a girl down in Texas
She was the daughter of a ranger
Roped my heart and let me loose
On the day I found the blues

And the day she let me loose
Was the day I found the blues
