Ain't No Grave

Traditional

C#m

There ain't no grave can hold my body down

F#m

C#m

There ain't no grave can hold my body down

F#m

C#m

There ain't no grave can hold my body down

Well, look way down the river

What do you think I see?

I see a band of angels

And they're coming after me

There ain't no grave can hold my body down

There ain't no grave can hold my body down

Well, look down yonder, Gabriel

Put your feet on the land and sea

But don't you blow your trumpet

Until you hear from me

There ain't no grave can hold my body down

There ain't no grave can hold my body down

Well, meet me, Jesus, meet me

Meet me in the air

And if these wings don't fail me

I'll meet you anywhere

There ain't no grave can hold my body down

There ain't no grave can hold my body down

Well, meet me, mother, meet me

Down by the river road

You know that I will be there

Checking in my load

There ain't no grave can hold my body down

There ain't no grave can hold my body down

Banks Of The Ohio

Traditional

C G
I asked my love to take a walk
G7 C
To take a walk, just a little walk
C7 F
And as we walked, along we talked
C G C
Of when would be our wedding day

I asked her if she would marry me
And my wife forever be
She only turned her head away
And had no other words to say

And only say that you'll be mine
In no others' arms entwine
Down beside where the waters flow
Down by the banks of the Ohio

I held a knife against her brest
As into my arms she pressed
She cried, "Oh, please, don't murder me
I'm not prepared for eternity."

And only say that you'll be mine
In no others' arms entwine
Down beside where the waters flow
Down by the banks of the Ohio

I took her by her golden curls
Drug her down to the river side
And there I threw her into drown
And then I watched her as she floated down

I started home between twelve and one
I cried, "My god, what have I done?
I've killed the only girl I love
Because she would not be my braid."

Barbara Allen

Traditional

A#                      Bb/A                      Gm
 Twas in the merry month of May
                  D#                                      F
 When green buds all were swelling,
                  D#                                      A#                      Bb/A Gm
 Sweet William on his death bed lay
                  A#                      F                      A#
 For the love of Barbara Allen.

He sent his servant to the town
To the place where she was dwelling,
Saying you must come to my master dear
If your name is Barbara Allen.

So slowly, slowly she got up
And slowly she drew near him,
And the only words to him she said
Oh young man I think you're dying.

He turned his face unto the wall
And death was in him welling,
Good-bye, good-bye, to you my friends
And be good to Barbara Allen.

When he was dead and laid in grave
She heard the death bells knelling
And every stroke to her did say
Hard hearted Barbara Allen.

Oh mother, mother dig my grave
And make it long and narrow,
Sweet William died of love for me
And I will die of sorrow.

And father, father dig my grave
And make it long and narrow,
Sweet William, he died yesterday
And I will die tomorrow.

And she was buried in the old churchyard
Sweet William layed beside her,
Out of William's heart, there grew a rose
Out of Barbara Allen's a briar.

They grew and grew in the old churchyard
Till they could grow no higher
At the end they formed, a true lover's knot
The rose around the briar.

"Oh no", cried the women, "That's a thing that never can be
We will call on King Henry and hear what he may say
And hear what he may say"

So King Henry was sent for, King Henry he did come Saying, "What does ail you my lady? Your eyes, they look so dim
Your eyes, they look so dim"

"King Henry, King Henry, will you do one thing for me?
Will you open up my right side and find my baby
And find my baby"

"Oh no", cried King Henry, "That's a thing that never can be
If I lose the flower of England, I shall lose the branch too
I shall lose the branch too"

There was fiddling, aye, and dancing on the day the babe was born
But poor Queen Jane beloved lay cold as a stone

Delia was a gambling' girl,

G

But she's laid her money down,

D/A A D/A

She's all I got and gone

Delia, Delia, why didn't you run

When Cooney come chasing after you

With that flaming fourtyfoursix gun

She's all I got and gone

Delia's mamma weep and Delia's daddy moan,

They wouldn't hated it quite so bad

If only Delia had died at home

She's all I got and gone

A rubber tired buggy and a double seated hack,

Carried Delia down to the graveyard

But they didn't bring her back

She's all I got and gone

Delia, oh how could it be

You wanted all of those gambling men

But you never had time for me

She's all I got and gone

Fare Thee Well

Fare thee well

I had a man, he was long and tall
And he moved his body like a cannon ball
Oh fare thee well, my honey
Fare thee well

Remember one evening in the pouring rain
And in my heart just an aching pain
Oh fare thee well, my honey
Fare thee well

And muddy rivers run muddy and wild
Can't give my body for my unborn child
Oh fare thee well, my honey
Fare thee well

Just as sure as the birds fly high above
Life ain't worth living without the one you love
Oh fare thee well, my honey
Fare thee well

If I had wings like Noah's dove
I'd fly the river to the one I love
Oh fare thee well, my honey
Fare thee well

"Well met, well met, my own true love,
A#      Cm
Well met, well met," cried he.
D#      A#      Gm
"I've just returned from the salt, salt sea
Cm      A#      Cm
All for the love of thee".

I could have married the king's daughter dear
She would have married me
But I have forsaken her crowns of gold
All for the love of thee

If you could have married the king's daughter
dear
I'm sure you are to blame
For I am married to a house carpenter
And find him a nice young man

Oh, will you forsake your house carpenter
And go along with me?
I'll take you to where the grass grows green
To the banks of the salt, salt sea

If I should forsake my house carpenter
And go along with thee
What have you got to maintain me on
And keep me from poverty?

Well I have six ships waiting out on the sea
Seven more upon dry land
One hundred and ten brave sailor men
Will be at your command

So she picked up her own wee babe
And kisses gave him three
"Stay right here with my house carpenter
And keep him good company"

And they had been gone for about two weeks
I'm sure it was not three
When this fair lady began to weep
She wept most bitterly

Oh, why do you weep, my fair young maid
Weep it for your golden store?
Or do you weep for your house carpenter
Who never you shall see no more?

I do not weep for my house carpenter
Nor for any golden store
I do weep for my own wee babe
Who never I shall see no more

And they had been gone for about three weeks
I'm sure it was not four
When their gallant ship leaked and sank
Never to rise no more

What hills, what hills are those, my love
Those hills so fair and high?
Those are the hills of heaven, my love
But not for you and I

And what hills, what hills are those, my love
Those hills so dark and low?
Those are the hills of hell, my love
Where you and I must go

Bm F# Bm F#7
And me oh Lord I'm one

My mother was a tailor
She sewed those new blue jeans
My father was a gamblin' man
Down in New Orleans

The only thing a gambler needs
Is a suitcase and a trunk
And the only time that he's satisfied
Is when he's on a drunk

Oh, mother, tell your children
Not to do what I have done
Not to spend your lives in sin and misery
In the house of the Rising Sun

I got one foot on the platform
And the other on the train
I'm going back to New Orleans
To wear that ball and chain

There is a house in New Orleans
They call the Rising Sun
And it's been the ruin of many poor boys
And, me oh Lord I'm one

John Barleycorn was dead

They've let him lie for a very long time

Till the rains from heaven did fall

And little Sir John sprung up his head

And so amazed them all

They've let him stand till Midsummer's Day

Till he looked both pale and wan

And little Sir John's grown a long, long beard

And so become a man

They've hired men with the scythes so sharp

To cut him off at the knee

They've rolled him and tied him by the way

Serving him most barbarously

They've hired men with the sharp pitchforks

Who pricked him to the heart

And the loader he has served him worse than that

For he's bound him to the cart

They've wheeled him around and around the field

Till they came unto a barn

And there they made a solemn oath

On poor John Barleycorn

They've hired men with the crab-tree sticks

To cut him skin from bone

And the miller he has served him worse than that

For he's ground him between two stones

And little Sir John and the nut-brown bowl

His brandy in the glass

And little Sir John and the nut-brown bowl

Proved the strongest man at last

The huntsman, he can't hunt the fox

Nor loudly blow his horn

And the tinker he can't mend kettle nor pot

Without a little Barleycorn

Well, John Henry, was a steel-driving man
And now he's dead, and now he's dead
Yes, John Henry, was a steel-driving man

And John Henry, he left his hammer
Layin' side of the road, layin' side of the road
Yes, John Henry, he left his hammer

This old hammer it killed John Henry
But it won't kill me, no it won't kill me
This old hammer it killed John Henry

Take this hammer, carry it to the captain
Tell him that I'm gone, tell him that I'm gone
Take this hammer, carry it to the captain

And now he's dead, and now he's dead
Yes, John Henry, was a steel-driving man

All painted in red, all painted in red
Yes, John Henry, he left his hammer

Lakes Of Pontchartrain

Traditional

          C      G                 F C
It was one fine March morning
      C          G          C
I bid New Orleans adieu.
          C      G          F          Am
I was on the road to Jackson town,
          C                  F
My fortune to renew,
      C          G          F C
I cursed all foreign money,
      C          G          F
No credit could I gain,
          C          G          F          Am
Which filled my heart with longing for
      C          G          C
The lakes of Pontchartrain.

I sat on board of a railway car,
Beneath the morning sun,
And I road the roads till the evening,
And I laid my body down,
All strangers there no friends to me,
Till a dark girl towards me came,
And I fell in love with a Creole girl,
By the lakes of Pontchartrain.

I said, "My pretty Creole girl,
My money here's no good,
If it wasn't for the alligators,
I would sleep out in the woods".
"You're welcome here kind stranger,
Our house is very plain.
But we never turn a stranger out,
From the lakes of Pontchartrain."

She took me to her momma's house,
And treated me right well,
The hair upon her shoulder
In jet black ringlets fell.
To try and paint her beauty,
I'm sure it'd be in vain,
So handsome was my Creole girl,
By the lakes of Pontchartrain.

I asked her would she would marry me,
She said it could never be,
For she had got another man,
How was out at the sea.
She said that she would wait for him
And faithful she'd remain.
Waiting for her sailor man,
By the lakes of Pontchartrain.

So fare you well my Bonny ol girl,
I'll never see you no more,
I wont forget your kindness
In the cottage by the shore.
At every social gathering
A flowing glass I'll raise,
To the health of my Creole girl,
And the lakes of Pontchartrain.

The name she bore was Flora, the lily of the west

I courted lovely Flora, she promised ne'er to go
But soon a tale was told to me that filled my heart with woe
They said she meets another man who holds my love in jest
And yet I trusted Flora, the lily of the west

Way down in yonder shady grove, a man of low degree
He spoke unto my Flora there and kissed her 'neath a tree
The answers that she gave to him like arrows pierced my breast
I was betrayed by Flora, the lily of the west

I stepped up to my rival there, my dagger in my hand
And seized him by his collar and ordered him to stand
All in my desperation I stabbed him in his chest
I killed a man for Flora, the lily of the west

And then I had to stand my trial, I had to make my plea.
They put me in a pris'ner's dock and then commenced on me
Although she swore my life away, deprived me of my rest
Still I love my Flora, the lily of the west

Woke up in the morning 'bout a half past nine,

The hacks and buggies standing in line,

The gents and gamblers standing all round,

Taking little Sadie to her burying ground

Begin to think what a deed I'd done

Grabbed my hat and away I run,

Made a good run, but a little too slow

They overtook me down in Jericho

Standin' in the corner ringin' a bell

Along came the sheriff from Thomasville

Says "Young man, your name is Brown,

Remember the night you shot Sadie down?"

Oh, yes sir, my name is Lee,

I murdered little Sadie in the first degree

First degree, second degree

Got any papers to read 'em to me

They took me downtown, dressed me in black

Put me on a train and sent me back

Sent me back to the county jail

Got nobody to go for my bail

The judge and jury they took the stand

The judge had the paper in his right hand

Forty-one days, forty-one nights,

Forty-one years to wear the ball and stripes

And when the meeting it was done

She cast her eyes about

And there she saw little Matty Groves

Walking in the crowd

"Come home with me, little Matty Groves

Come home with me tonight

Come home with me, little Matty Groves

And lie down by my side"

And Matty Groves he lay down

And took a little sleep

When he awoke, Lord Donald was

Standing at his feet

Saying, "How do you like my feather bed

How do you like my sheets

How do you like my lady

Lying in your arms asleep?"

"Oh, well I like your feather bed

And well I like your sheets

But better I like your lady

Lying in my arms asleep"

"Oh, get up, get up", Lord Donald cried

"Get up as quick as you can

It'll never be said in fair England

I slew a naked man"

And Matty struck the very first blow

And hurt Lord Donald sore

Lord Donald struck the very next blow

And Matty struck no more

And then Lord Donald he took his wife

And he put her on his knee

Saying, "Who do you like the best of us

Matty Groves or me?"

And then up spoke his own dear wife

She never spoke so free

"I'd rather kiss dead Matty's lips

Than you or your finery"

And then Lord Donald, he jumped up

And loudly he did bawl

And struck his wife right through the heart

And pinned her against the wall

"A grave, a grave," Lord Donald cried

"To put these lovers in

But bury milady at the top

For she was of noble kin"

Sweetest girl in town

Wish I had a big brown horse
Corn to feed him on
Shady Grove to stay at home
Feed him while I'm gone

Went to see my Shady Grove
She was standing in the door
Shoes and stockings in her hand
Little bare feet on the floor

When I was a little boy
I wanted a Barlow knife
Now I want my Shady Grove
To say she'll be my wife

And a kiss from my Shady Grove
Sweet as brandy wine
There ain't no girl in this whole wide world
Prettier than mine

Shady Grove, my little love
Shady Grove I say
Shady Grove, my little love

Stackerlee

Remember one September,
On one Friday night,
Stackerlee and Billy Lyon,
Had a great big fight,
He's a bad man, oh, cruel Stackerlee

Stack, he says to Billy
You can't play like that,
First you won my money,
Now you're trying to get my hat,
He's a bad man, oh, cruel Stackerlee

And Billy shot six bits,
And Stack, he bet he passed,
Stack, out with a forty-five,
Said you've shot your last,
He's a bad man, oh, cruel Stackerlee

Oh Mister Stackerlee,
Please don't take my life,
At home I got three children,
And a darlin' lovin' wife,
He's a bad man, oh, cruel Stackerlee

God will take your children,
I'll take care of your wife,
First you took my money,
Now I'm gonna take your life,
He's a bad man, oh, cruel Stackerlee

A woman there came a running,
She fell down on her knees,
Crying, Oh Mister Lee,
Don't shoot my brother please,
He's a bad man, oh, cruel Stackerlee

Woman to the sheriff,
Oh how can that be,
You can arrest everybody,
But you're afraid of Stackerlee,
He's a bad man, oh, cruel Stackerlee

Sheriff went to Stackerlee,
He was lying there asleep,
And the sheriff he got Stackerlee,
When he jumped up on his feet,
He's a bad man, oh, cruel Stackerlee

Stack says to the jailer,
Jailer, I can't sleep,
Cause all around my bedside,
Billy Lyon begins to creep,
He's a bad man, oh, cruel Stackerlee

Two o'clock next Tuesday,
On a scaffold high,
People coming from miles all around,
Just to watch old Stackerlee die,
He's a bad man, oh, cruel Stackerlee

And down in New Orleans,
There's a place called Lions Club,
Where every step you take,
You're stepping in Billy Lyon's blood,
He's a bad man, oh, cruel Stackerlee

Remember one September,
On one Friday night,
Stackerlee and Billy Lyon,
Had a great big fight,
He's a bad man, oh, cruel Stackerlee

And the usual crowd was there.

To my left stood big Joe McKennedy
His eyes were bloodshot red.
Turned his head to the crowd around him
And these were the words he said:

I went down to St. James infirmary,
To see my baby there,
Stretched out on a long white table,
So cold, so sweet, so fair.

Let her go, let her go, God bless her,

Wherever she may be,
She may search the whole wide world over
Never find a man like me.

And it was down in old Joe's barroom
On the corner of the square.
They were serving the drinks as usual,
And the usual crowd was there.

The Boy Who Wouldn't Hoe Corn

Traditional

Gm D#
Tell you a story, it won't take long,
F Gm
'Bout a lazy farmer who wouldn't hoe his corn.
D#
The reason why I never could tell,
F Gm
That young man was always well.

He planted his corn in the month of June.
By July it was up to his eyes.
Come September, came a big frost.
And all the young man's corn was lost.

His courtship had just begun.
Said: "Young man, have you hoed some corn?"
"Well, I tried and I tried, but I tried in vain.
And I don't believe I raised one grain."

He went down to his neighbour's door.
Where he had often been before.
Sayin': "Little miss, will you marry me?
Little miss what do you say?"

"Why do you come for me to wed?
You can't even make your own corn grain.
"Single I am, single I will remain.
A lazy man, I won't maintain."

So he turned his back and walked away.
Saying: "Little miss, you will rue the day.
You will rue the day that you were born.
For givin' me the devil 'cos I wouldn't hoe corn."

Am

On the trail of the buffalo

I found myself in Texas

In the year of '83

A well known famous drover

Came walking up to me

Saying, "How do you do, young fellow

How would you like to go

And spend the summer pleasant

On the trail of the buffalo?"

Being out of work right then

To the drover I did say

"Going out on the buffalo trail

Depends on the pay"

But if you'll pay good wages

Transportation to and fro

I think I might go with you

On the trail of the buffalo

Of course I'll pay good wages

And transportation too

If you agree to work for me

Until the season's through

But if you do get homesick

And try to run away

You will starve to death

And also lose your pay

C

Am

On the trail, on the trail

C

Am

On the trail, on the trail

F

Am

On the trail

With all his flattering talking

He signed up quite a train

Some ten or twelve in number

Some able bodied men

Our trip it was a pleasant one

Through good old Mexico

Until we crossed Pease River

On the trail of the buffalo

There our pleasures ended

The troubles all began

A lightening storm came on us

And made the cattle run

And we got full of stickers

From the cactus that did grow

All along the path

On the trail of the buffalo

When our season ended

The drover would not pay

He said you lost your money boys

You're all in debt to me

But the cowboys they had never heard

Of a thing like bankrupt law

So they left the bastard's bones to bleach

On the trail of the Buffalo

On the trail, on the trail

On the trail

I took all of his money and it was a pretty penny
I took all of his money and I brought it home to Molly
She swore that she'd love me, never would she leave me
But the devil take that woman, for you know she tricked me easy

Mush-a ring, dam-a-doo dam-a-da
Whack for my daddy-o
Whack for my daddy-o
There's whiskey in the jar

Being drunk and weary, I went to Molly's chamber
Takin' Molly with me and I never knew the danger
For about six, maybe seven, in walked Captain Farrell
I fired off my pistols, and I shot him with both barrels

Mush-a ring, dam-a-doo dam-a-da
Whack for my daddy-o
Whack for my daddy-o
There's whiskey in the jar

Some men like the fishin' and some men like the fowlin'
Some men like to hear the cannon ball a-roarin'
Me, I like sleepin', 'specially in my Molly's chamber
But here I am in prison, here I am with a ball and chain yeah

Mush-a ring, dam-a-doo dam-a-da

For to carry my mother away

Will the circle be unbroken

By and by, Lord, by and by

There's a better home a-waiting

In the sky, Lord, in the sky

I said to that undertaker

Undertaker please drive slow

For this lady you are carrying

Lord, I hate to see her go

Will the circle be unbroken

By and by, Lord, by and by

There's a better home a-waiting

In the sky, Lord, in the sky

Oh, I followed close behind her

Tried to hold up and be brave

But I could not hide my sorrow

When they laid her in the grave

Will the circle be unbroken

By and by, Lord, by and by

There's a better home a-waiting

In the sky, Lord, in the sky

When I got home, that home was lonesome

Missed my mother, she was gone

All of my brothers and sisters crying

What a home so sad and lone

Will the circle be unbroken

By and by, Lord, by and by

There's a better home a-waiting

In the sky, Lord, in the sky

Will The Circle Be Unbroken (alternate lyrics)

Traditional

There are loved ones in the glory
Whose dear forms you often miss
When you close your earthly story
Will you join them in their bliss?

Will the circle be unbroken
By and by, Lord, by and by
There's a better home a-waiting
In the sky, Lord, in the sky

In the joyous days of childhood
Oft they told of wondrous love
Pointed to the dying saviour
Now they dwell with him above

Will the circle be unbroken
By and by, Lord, by and by
There's a better home a-waiting
In the sky, Lord, in the sky

You remember songs of heaven
Which you sang with childish voice
Do you love the hymns they taught you
Or are songs of earth your choice?

Will the circle be unbroken
By and by, Lord, by and by
There's a better home a-waiting
In the sky, Lord, in the sky

You can picture happy gath'ings
'Round the fireside long ago
And you think of tearful partings
When they left you here below

Will the circle be unbroken
By and by, Lord, by and by
There's a better home a-waiting
In the sky, Lord, in the sky

One by one their seats were emptied
And one by one they went away
Now the family is parted
Will it be complete one day?

Will the circle be unbroken
By and by, Lord, by and by
There's a better home a-waiting
In the sky, Lord, in the sky

Bring me my cowboy, tell him I'm waiting
Or else my heart will go insane

Bring me my cowboy, he's such a fine guy
It does me harm no words could tell

And ever since the day he rode off
When our hearts and herds were split in two
And ever since the day he rode off
I am waiting for my cowboy man

Bring me my cowboy, tell him I'm waiting
Or else my heart's expecting rain

Bring me my cowboy, he's such a fine guy
It does me harm no words could tell

And ever since the day he rode off
When our hearts and herds were split in two
And ever since the day he rode off
I am waiting for my cowboy man

With his cattle he keeps trekking
From California to Ohio
And the sand of endless valleys
Keeps sticking to his boots

And ever since the day he rode off
When our hearts and herds were split in two
And ever since the day he rode off
I am waiting for my cowboy man

They say I should save my money
They say I should save my money
But as long as I don't know
What I'm saving for
I don't think I should save my money

They say I should go to school
They say I should go to school
But if all I wanna learn
Is taught on the streets
I don't think i should go to school

Am      G
And for my thirty-first birthday
C                      F
I'll get myself a bell
    Am                      G
A bell that rings out freedom
C                      F
Freedom to relax and chill
    Am                      G
Where noone has to hide
C                      F
And noone ever has to burn
    C              G      Am      F
Yes for my thirtyfirst birthday
    C              G      C
Darling, get yourself a bell

They say I should settle down
They say I should settle down
But if all what I need
Is a blanket on the floor
I don't think I should settle down

They say I should hail the king
They say I should hail the king
But if he is nothing
But a stupid old jerk
I don't think I should hail the king

And for my thirty-first birthday
I'll get myself a bell
A bell that rings out freedom
Freedom to relax and chill
Where noone has to hide
And noone ever has to burn
Yes for my thirtyfirst birthday
Darling, get yourself a bell

They say I'm too old to sing this song
They say I'm too old to sing this song
But as long as i don't see
A reason to quit
I continue to sing this song

Death Of Emmett Till

Bob Dylan

Bm Bm7/A Bm/G# G
It was down in Mississippi no so long ago,
Bm Bm7/A Bm/G# F#
When a young boy from Chicago town walked in a Southern door.
Bm Bm7/A Bm/G# G
This boy's frightful tragedy you should all remember well,
Bm Bm7/A Bm/G# F# Bm
The color of his skin was black his name was Emmett Till.

Some men they dragged him to a barn and there they beat him up.
They said they had a reason, but I disremember what.
They tortured him and did some things too evil to repeat.
There was screaming sounds inside the barn, there was laughter on the street.

They rolled his body down a gulf amidst the blood-red rain
And they threw him in the waters wide to cease his screaming pain.
The reason that they killed him there, I'm sure it ain't no lie,
The color of his skin was black, so he was born to die.

To stop the United States of yelling for a trial,
Two brothers they confessed that they had killed poor Emmett Till.
But on the jury there were men who helped commit this awful crime,
So this trial was a mockery, but nobody seemed to mind.

I saw the morning papers but I could not bear
To see the smiling brothers walkin' down the courthouse stairs.
For the jury found them innocent, the brothers they went free,
While Emmett's body floats the foam of a Jim Crow southern sea.

This song's just a reminder to remind your fellow man
That this kind of thing still lives today in that ghost-robed Ku Klux Klan.
But if all we folks who think alike, if we gave all we could give,
We can make this great land of ours a greater place to live.

I'll meet you further on up the road

Got on my dead man's suit and my smilin' skull ring
My lucky graveyard boots and a song to sing
I got a song to sing to keep me out of the cold
And I'll meet you further on up the road

And I'll meet you further on up the road}

Now I been out in the desert just doin' my time
Searchin' through the dust lookin' for a sign
If there's a light up ahead well brother I don't know
But I got this fever burnin' in my soul

Further on up the road further on up the road
Further on up the road further on up the road
One sunny mornin' we'll rise I know
And I'll meet you further on up the road

Place the stones at my head and feet
And tell them all I've gone to sleep

When I die, oh bury me deep
Down at the end of old Chestnut Street
So I can hear old Number Nine
As she comes rolling by

When I die, oh bury me deep
Down at the end of old Chestnut Street
Place the stones at my head and feet
And tell them all I've gone to sleep

Freight train, freight train, run so fast
Freight train, freight train, run so fast
Please don't tell what train I'm on
They won't know what route I'm going

For to hunt the bonny shoals of herring

Now you're up on deck, you're a fisherman
You can swear and show a manly bearing
Take your turn on watch with the other fellows
As you're hunting for the shoals of herring

Well I earned my keep and I paid my way
And I earned the gear that I was wearing
Sailed a million miles, caught ten million fish
We were hunting after shoals of herring

Not a shirt on my back, not a penny to my name
And the land that I once loved is not my own
Lord I'm one, Lord I'm two, Lord I'm three, Lord I'm four Lord I'm five hundred miles away from home

A hundred tanks along the square, one man stands and stops them there
Some day soon the tide will turn and I'll be free
I'll be free, I'll be free, I'll come home to my country
Some day soon the tide will turn and I'll be free

If you miss the train I'm on, you will know that I am gone
You can hear the whistle blow a hundred miles

The angels laid him away

Oh, kind friends, oh, ain't it hard?
To see poor Louis in a new graveyard
The angels laid him away

The angels laid him away,
They laid him six feet under the clay
The angels laid him away

Oh, when they heard that Louis was dead
All the people they dressed in red
The angels laid him away

The angels laid him away,
They laid him six feet under the clay
The angels laid him away

You're now called Jimmy you'll be Jimmy just the same

The keys are in a bag in a chest by the door

One of Jimmy's friends has taken the floor

Jimmy won't you please come home

Where the grass is green and the buffaloes roam

Dear old Jimmy you've forgotten you're young

But you can't ignore the buffalo song

And the Buffaloes used to say be proud of your name

The Buffaloes used to say be what you are

The Buffaloes used to say roam where you roam

The Buffaloes used to say do what you do

If you remember you're unkown

Buffaloland will be your home

Where have all the graveyards gone?

Long time ago

Where have all the graveyards gone?

Gone to flowers everyone

When will they ever learn?

When will they ever learn?

Dollar Bill Blues

Townes Van Zandt

Cm                      Fm
If I had a dollar bill

Cm
Yes, I believe, I surely will

Gm
Go to town and drink my fill

Gm
Early in the morning

Little darling, she's a red-haired thing
Man, she makes my legs to sing
Going to buy her a diamond ring
Early in the morning

It's a long way down the Harlan Road
Busted back and a heavy load
Won't get through to save my soul
Early in the morning

I've always been a gambling man
I've rolled them bones with either hand
Seven is the promised land
Early in the morning

Whiskey'd be my dying bed
Tell me where to lay my head
Not with me is all she said
Early in the morning

If I had a dollar bill
Yes, I believe, I surely will
Go to town and drink my fill
Early in the morning

I would swim the seas for to ease your pain

In the night forlorn, in the morning born

And the morning shines with the lights of love

You will miss sunrise if you close your eyes

And that would break my heart in two

The lady's with me now since I showed her how

To lay her lily hand in mine

Who would not agree, she's a sight to see

And a treasure for the poor to find

If I needed you, would you come to me?

Would you come to me for to ease my pain?

Pancho And Lefty

Townes Van Zandt

C
Living on the road my friend
G
Is gonna keep you free and clean
F
Now you wear your skin like iron
C G
Your breath as hard as kerosene
F
Weren't your mama's only boy
C F
But her favorite one it seems
Am F C G
She began to cry when you said good - bye
F Am
And sank into your dreams

Pancho was a bandit, boys, his Horse was fast as polished steel
He wore his gun outside his pants
For all the honest world to see
Pancho met his match you know on the Deserts down in Mexico
Nobody heard his dying words
But that's the way it goes

F
All the Federales say they
C F
Could have had him any day
Am F C G
They only let him slip away
F Am
Out of kindness I suppose

Lefty he can't sing the blues
All night long like he used to
The dust that Pancho bit down south
Ended up in Lefty's mouth
The day they laid poor Pancho low
Lefty split for Ohio
Where he got the bread to go
There ain't nobody knows

All the Federales say they
Could have had him any day
They only let him slip away
Out of kindness I suppose

Poets tell how Pancho fell and
Lefty's living in a cheap hotel
The desert's quiet and Cleveland's cold,
And so the story ends we're told
Pancho needs your prayers it's true but
Save a few for Lefty too
He only did what he had to do
And now he's growing old

All the Federales say
Could have had him any day
We only let him slip away
Out of kindness I suppose
A few gray Federales say
Could have had him any day
We only only let him go so long
Out of of kindness I suppose

Waiting Around To Die

Townes Van Zandt

C#m F#m
Sometimes I don't know where this dirty road is taking me
C#m G#
Sometimes I don't even know the reason why
C#m
I guess I'll keep a'gambling
F#m
Lots of booze and lots of rambling
C#m G# C#m
It's easier than just a-waitin' around to die

Once I had a Ma, once I had a Pa
He hit her with a belt once 'cause she cried
She told him to take care of me
Headed back to Tennessee
It was easier 'n just waitin around to die.

I came of age and I met a girl in a Tuscaloosa bar
She cleaned me out and hid it on the sly
I tried to kill the pain
I bought some wine and hopped a train
It was easier than just waiting around to die

My friend said he knew where some easy money was
We robbed a man and brother did we fly
The police caught up with me
Drug me back to muskoguee
Now it's two long years of waiting around to die.

Now I'm out of prison I got me a friend at last
He don't drink, or cheat, or steal, or lie
His name's codeine
He's the finest thing I've seen
And together we're gonna wait around to die.
